

2-20-1947

Bulloch Herald

Notes

Condition varies. Some pages missing or in poor condition.

Originals provided for filming by the publisher.

Gift of Statesboro Herald and the Bulloch County Historical Society.

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/bulloch-news-issues>

Recommended Citation

"Bulloch Herald" (1947). Bulloch County Newspapers (Single Issues). 3781.
<https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/bulloch-news-issues/3781>

This newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Bulloch County Historical Newspapers at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in Bulloch County Newspapers (Single Issues) by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.

SOCIETY

GIRL SCOUTS ENJOY VALENTINE PARTY

The Girl Scouts, with their leaders, Miss Carole Deal and Miss Ruth Lanier, enjoyed a lovely Valentine Party at the home of Nancy Attaway, Friday evening. The basement playroom was open and the girls and their leaders enjoyed their own planning for the party. The Valentine idea was carried out. Games of all kinds were played and a quiz program enjoyed. Each girl exchanged Valentines from a large Valentine box. Sandwiches, potato chips, pickles, olives, cookies, candy and punch were served. Seventeen girls and their leaders enjoyed the party.

RHYTHM CLUB HAVE LOVELY PARTY

The Rhythm Club entertained with a Valentine Dance Thursday night at the Woman's Club. Hostesses for the dance were Mesdames Lehman Franklin, Grady Attaway, Bill Bowen, Frank Richardson, Gordon Franklin and J. G. Gay. The club room was decorated in Valentine colors. Red candles were burning throughout the room. Over the mantel was a large red heart with a nose gay in the center. Red carnations, narcissi and snap dragons were used. On the table was a lovely white cloth bordered with red hearts. In the center was a large red heart and in the center of the heart was cupid. Olives, pickles, potato chips, cheese, crackers, nuts and Coca-Cola were served. Fifty couples attended the dance. Music was by Lambuth Key and his orchestra.

STATESBORO MUSIC CLUB HAVE MEETING

The Statesboro Music Club met Tuesday night at the Methodist church where a program of organ music was presented. After the program they went to the home of Jack Averitt where a lovely social hour was had. Twenty-eight members were present.

CTA'S HAVE MEETING

The CTA's met with Charlotte Clements Wednesday night, for their weekly meeting. After a business meeting, ham sandwiches, Coca-Cola and cake was served. All twelve members were present.

Precision Layout Boosts Garden Yield, Saves Work

Efficiency should be the goal in planning the home vegetable garden. Efficiency means getting the most for your money and work. An efficient garden, of small area, will produce as much quality food as twice the area, carefully planned and cared for. The smaller area will take less time and less money to maintain, and the vegetables will be better. What a reward this is, for taking thought this winter when there is little to do, and planning a garden which can be quickly begun when spring comes. A good plan requires first, a well thought-out production schedule, with each crop assigned the space required to produce the family needs, and the time for each crop to be harvested. Make this plan in advance, to keep the land producing throughout the summer. Next, the garden must be laid out in straight, short, parallel rows, far enough apart for cultivation to be done with a wheel hoe, or hand cultivator, with the garden standing up. This is the modern American way. In a well planned garden the work can be as light as housework, with no job to be done which is any greater than sweeping. When the rows are short, you get frequent rests, when the first crop is reached, and it is easier to

Mr. J. L. Zetterower returned to Statesboro Monday of this week from Miami, Fla., where he attended the funeral of Mrs. L. O. Scarborough.

THE TET'S MET AT THE HOME OF DONALD HOSTETTER TUESDAY NIGHT

After a business meeting a steak supper, string beans with melted cheese, french fried potatoes, congealed salad and dressing, baked apple, pound cake with cream and coffee was enjoyed.

Those present were: Talmadge Brannen, Buckley Atkins, Sunny Tillman, Harold DeLoach, and Mrs. Frank Miller had returned from a visit with relatives in Savannah and Hinesville.

Miss Edna Neville and Mrs. Barney Averett spent a few days in Atlanta last week.

Mrs. Corine Pofford of Atlanta, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Lanier.

Georgia Theatre

NOW SHOWING
"THREE LITTLE GIRLS IN BLUE"
(In Technicolor)
Starts 3:00; 5:07; 7:22; 9:33
and MEN OF TOMORROW

CHILDREN'S FILM LIBRARY SHOW

"THE GREEN PASTURES"
ONE SHOWING ONLY, 10 a.m.
ADMISSION 20c
Also SPECIAL CARTOON SHOW BEGINNING AT 1:20 p.m.
"Don't Gamble With Strangers"
Starts 2:57; 5:20; 7:43; 10:06
Our Western Attraction Jim Wakely in
"SONG OF THE SIERRAS"
Starts 2:57; 5:25; 6:48; 9:11
Also a Disney Cartoon

BRIDGE CLUB MEETS

Mrs. A. B. Green delightfully entertained the members of her bridge club and a few invited guests on Thursday afternoon. She served spring flowers for her decorations. Club high went to Mrs. Johnny Thayer, club out to Mrs. Gerald Groover, visitors out to Mrs. J. E. Bowen and low to Mrs. Sidney Dodd.

Mrs. Green served a sweet course with coffee. Those present were Mrs. Buford Knight, Mrs. C. Coleman, Mrs. Julian Hodges, Mrs. Frank Hook, Mrs. Hobson Dulose, Mrs. Gerald Groover, Mrs. Sidney Dodd, Mrs. Jake Smith, Mrs. J. E. Bowen, Mrs. Johnny Thayer, Mrs. William Smith and Mrs. Matt Dobson.

Rev. and Mrs. Marvin Blewett, of Augusta, spent Monday with her mother, Mrs. John Everett.

"IF I'M LUCKY"

With Vivian Blackberry, Como Harry James and Orchestra and Carmen Miranda
Starts 2:30; 4:19; 6:08; 7:57; 9:46
Coming February 27-28
"THE BIG SLEEP"

Church News

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. T. Earl Serson, Pastor
Sunday School, 10:15 a.m.
Morning Service 11:30 a.m.
Sermon: "Peter's Portrait of Christ."
Training Union 6:15 p.m.
The Hour of Evangelism 7:30 p.m.
The second is a series of sermons on the parables of Jesus.

PRIMITIVE BAPTIST CHURCH
Elder V. F. Acan, Pastor
Friday afternoon at 3:30, February 21, the World Day of Prayer will be observed at the Primitive Baptist Church.
Sunday, February 23 at 11:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. there will be the regular preaching services.
We extend a cordial invitation to all who wish to join with us in the worship of God in all these services.

THE METHODIST CHURCH
Rev. Chas. A. Jackson, Pastor
11:30 a.m. "Two Ounces of prevention."
Sunday School at 10:15 a.m. or 11:30 a.m. Elmer S. Bullington, Jr., of Macon, preaching in a youth sponsored service.
Youth Fellowship at 6:30 p.m.

NOTICE
All persons holding claims against the estate of Dr. A. J. Mooney are requested to present same to the undersigned and all persons indebted to said estate are requested to make prompt settlement with the undersigned.

SALLIE W. MOONEY, Executor Estate of Dr. A. J. Mooney. 2-27-p

NOTICE
Any person indebted to the estate of Ira S. Perkins, please make payment to the undersigned and any person having any bills or claims against said estate please present them for payment. This the 17th day of Feb., 1947. J. T. PERKINS, Administrator estate of Ira S. Perkins. 2-27-c

"Young America Paints" Art Exhibit Now At County Library

"Young America Paints" is the name of an art exhibit which is being shown in the schools of Bulloch County this month. The collection contains work in crayon, tempera, fresco and water color. The paintings were done by children on various grade levels throughout the United States and were shown originally in the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York.

Teachers and other people interested in art are invited to a special showing of the exhibit at the Children's Library of Georgia Teachers College on Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock.

Miss Freda Gorman, head of the art department of GTC, will help to evaluate the pictures and will discuss art standards for various age levels.

Middleground News

The P-T-A met last Friday afternoon at 2:30 with thirty-two attending. A Founder's Day Program was given.

Mrs. L. L. Hendrix and Mrs. Kenneth Bessley served peanut butter and rice crackers, Coca-Cola and cake.

All nine grades enjoyed Valentine parties at the school. Several visitors attended.

30,000 FEDERAL JOBS OFFERED TO COMPETITION

The U. S. Civil Service Commission, Atlanta, Georgia, announces an extension of time through February 27 to file applications for clerical positions, paying entrance salaries ranging from $1.75 to $2.93 a year, with periodic increases every twelve months.

There are more than 20,000 clerical jobs involved in various Federal government agencies in the States of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina and Tennessee.

This examination is for probationary Civil Service and after successful completion of the probationary period appointees will acquire a permanent Civil Service status.

The examination is open to the general public, and persons with a disability of arm, hand, leg or foot are acceptable if such disability does not prevent satisfactory performance of the duties.

Veterans that qualify in the examination will be given preference in appointment as provided in the Veterans' Preference Act of 1944.

For detailed information, form to file, etc., see the Commission's Local Secretary, D. R. DeLoach, at the post office, or apply at any first or second class post office in the above mentioned States and ask to see Examination Announcements No. 5-66.

30,000 FEDERAL JOBS OFFERED TO COMPETITION

The U. S. Civil Service Commission, Atlanta, Georgia, announces an extension of time through February 27 to file applications for clerical positions, paying entrance salaries ranging from $1.75 to $2.93 a year, with periodic increases every twelve months.

There are more than 20,000 clerical jobs involved in various Federal government agencies in the States of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina and Tennessee.

This examination is for probationary Civil Service and after successful completion of the probationary period appointees will acquire a permanent Civil Service status.

The examination is open to the general public, and persons with a disability of arm, hand, leg or foot are acceptable if such disability does not prevent satisfactory performance of the duties.

Veterans that qualify in the examination will be given preference in appointment as provided in the Veterans' Preference Act of 1944.

For detailed information, form to file, etc., see the Commission's Local Secretary, D. R. DeLoach, at the post office, or apply at any first or second class post office in the above mentioned States and ask to see Examination Announcements No. 5-66.

30,000 FEDERAL JOBS OFFERED TO COMPETITION

The U. S. Civil Service Commission, Atlanta, Georgia, announces an extension of time through February 27 to file applications for clerical positions, paying entrance salaries ranging from $1.75 to $2.93 a year, with periodic increases every twelve months.

There are more than 20,000 clerical jobs involved in various Federal government agencies in the States of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina and Tennessee.

This examination is for probationary Civil Service and after successful completion of the probationary period appointees will acquire a permanent Civil Service status.

The examination is open to the general public, and persons with a disability of arm, hand, leg or foot are acceptable if such disability does not prevent satisfactory performance of the duties.

Veterans that qualify in the examination will be given preference in appointment as provided in the Veterans' Preference Act of 1944.

For detailed information, form to file, etc., see the Commission's Local Secretary, D. R. DeLoach, at the post office, or apply at any first or second class post office in the above mentioned States and ask to see Examination Announcements No. 5-66.

30,000 FEDERAL JOBS OFFERED TO COMPETITION

The U. S. Civil Service Commission, Atlanta, Georgia, announces an extension of time through February 27 to file applications for clerical positions, paying entrance salaries ranging from $1.75 to $2.93 a year, with periodic increases every twelve months.

There are more than 20,000 clerical jobs involved in various Federal government agencies in the States of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina and Tennessee.

This examination is for probationary Civil Service and after successful completion of the probationary period appointees will acquire a permanent Civil Service status.

The examination is open to the general public, and persons with a disability of arm, hand, leg or foot are acceptable if such disability does not prevent satisfactory performance of the duties.

Veterans that qualify in the examination will be given preference in appointment as provided in the Veterans' Preference Act of 1944.

For detailed information, form to file, etc., see the Commission's Local Secretary, D. R. DeLoach, at the post office, or apply at any first or second class post office in the above mentioned States and ask to see Examination Announcements No. 5-66.

30,000 FEDERAL JOBS OFFERED TO COMPETITION

The U. S. Civil Service Commission, Atlanta, Georgia, announces an extension of time through February 27 to file applications for clerical positions, paying entrance salaries ranging from $1.75 to $2.93 a year, with periodic increases every twelve months.

There are more than 20,000 clerical jobs involved in various Federal government agencies in the States of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina and Tennessee.

This examination is for probationary Civil Service and after successful completion of the probationary period appointees will acquire a permanent Civil Service status.

The examination is open to the general public, and persons with a disability of arm, hand, leg or foot are acceptable if such disability does not prevent satisfactory performance of the duties.

Veterans that qualify in the examination will be given preference in appointment as provided in the Veterans' Preference Act of 1944.

For detailed information, form to file, etc., see the Commission's Local Secretary, D. R. DeLoach, at the post office, or apply at any first or second class post office in the above mentioned States and ask to see Examination Announcements No. 5-66.

30,000 FEDERAL JOBS OFFERED TO COMPETITION

The U. S. Civil Service Commission, Atlanta, Georgia, announces an extension of time through February 27 to file applications for clerical positions, paying entrance salaries ranging from $1.75 to $2.93 a year, with periodic increases every twelve months.

There are more than 20,000 clerical jobs involved in various Federal government agencies in the States of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina and Tennessee.

This examination is for probationary Civil Service and after successful completion of the probationary period appointees will acquire a permanent Civil Service status.

The examination is open to the general public, and persons with a disability of arm, hand, leg or foot are acceptable if such disability does not prevent satisfactory performance of the duties.

Veterans that qualify in the examination will be given preference in appointment as provided in the Veterans' Preference Act of 1944.

For detailed information, form to file, etc., see the Commission's Local Secretary, D. R. DeLoach, at the post office, or apply at any first or second class post office in the above mentioned States and ask to see Examination Announcements No. 5-66.

30,000 FEDERAL JOBS OFFERED TO COMPETITION

The U. S. Civil Service Commission, Atlanta, Georgia, announces an extension of time through February 27 to file applications for clerical positions, paying entrance salaries ranging from $1.75 to $2.93 a year, with periodic increases every twelve months.

There are more than 20,000 clerical jobs involved in various Federal government agencies in the States of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina and Tennessee.

This examination is for probationary Civil Service and after successful completion of the probationary period appointees will acquire a permanent Civil Service status.

The examination is open to the general public, and persons with a disability of arm, hand, leg or foot are acceptable if such disability does not prevent satisfactory performance of the duties.

Veterans that qualify in the examination will be given preference in appointment as provided in the Veterans' Preference Act of 1944.

For detailed information, form to file, etc., see the Commission's Local Secretary, D. R. DeLoach, at the post office, or apply at any first or second class post office in the above mentioned States and ask to see Examination Announcements No. 5-66.

30,000 FEDERAL JOBS OFFERED TO COMPETITION

The U. S. Civil Service Commission, Atlanta, Georgia, announces an extension of time through February 27 to file applications for clerical positions, paying entrance salaries ranging from $1.75 to $2.93 a year, with periodic increases every twelve months.

30,000 FEDERAL JOBS OFFERED TO COMPETITION

The U. S. Civil Service Commission, Atlanta, Georgia, announces an extension of time through February 27 to file applications for clerical positions, paying entrance salaries ranging from $1.75 to $2.93 a year, with periodic increases every twelve months.

There are more than 20,000 clerical jobs involved in various Federal government agencies in the States of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina and Tennessee.

This examination is for probationary Civil Service and after successful completion of the probationary period appointees will acquire a permanent Civil Service status.

The examination is open to the general public, and persons with a disability of arm, hand, leg or foot are acceptable if such disability does not prevent satisfactory performance of the duties.

Veterans that qualify in the examination will be given preference in appointment as provided in the Veterans' Preference Act of 1944.

For detailed information, form to file, etc., see the Commission's Local Secretary, D. R. DeLoach, at the post office, or apply at any first or second class post office in the above mentioned States and ask to see Examination Announcements No. 5-66.

30,000 FEDERAL JOBS OFFERED TO COMPETITION

The U. S. Civil Service Commission, Atlanta, Georgia, announces an extension of time through February 27 to file applications for clerical positions, paying entrance salaries ranging from $1.75 to $2.93 a year, with periodic increases every twelve months.

There are more than 20,000 clerical jobs involved in various Federal government agencies in the States of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina and Tennessee.

This examination is for probationary Civil Service and after successful completion of the probationary period appointees will acquire a permanent Civil Service status.

The examination is open to the general public, and persons with a disability of arm, hand, leg or foot are acceptable if such disability does not prevent satisfactory performance of the duties.

Veterans that qualify in the examination will be given preference in appointment as provided in the Veterans' Preference Act of 1944.

For detailed information, form to file, etc., see the Commission's Local Secretary, D. R. DeLoach, at the post office, or apply at any first or second class post office in the above mentioned States and ask to see Examination Announcements No. 5-66.

30,000 FEDERAL JOBS OFFERED TO COMPETITION

The U. S. Civil Service Commission, Atlanta, Georgia, announces an extension of time through February 27 to file applications for clerical positions, paying entrance salaries ranging from $1.75 to $2.93 a year, with periodic increases every twelve months.

There are more than 20,000 clerical jobs involved in various Federal government agencies in the States of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina and Tennessee.

This examination is for probationary Civil Service and after successful completion of the probationary period appointees will acquire a permanent Civil Service status.

The examination is open to the general public, and persons with a disability of arm, hand, leg or foot are acceptable if such disability does not prevent satisfactory performance of the duties.

Veterans that qualify in the examination will be given preference in appointment as provided in the Veterans' Preference Act of 1944.

For detailed information, form to file, etc., see the Commission's Local Secretary, D. R. DeLoach, at the post office, or apply at any first or second class post office in the above mentioned States and ask to see Examination Announcements No. 5-66.

30,000 FEDERAL JOBS OFFERED TO COMPETITION

The U. S. Civil Service Commission, Atlanta, Georgia, announces an extension of time through February 27 to file applications for clerical positions, paying entrance salaries ranging from $1.75 to $2.93 a year, with periodic increases every twelve months.

There are more than 20,000 clerical jobs involved in various Federal government agencies in the States of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina and Tennessee.

This examination is for probationary Civil Service and after successful completion of the probationary period appointees will acquire a permanent Civil Service status.

The examination is open to the general public, and persons with a disability of arm, hand, leg or foot are acceptable if such disability does not prevent satisfactory performance of the duties.

Veterans that qualify in the examination will be given preference in appointment as provided in the Veterans' Preference Act of 1944.

For detailed information, form to file, etc., see the Commission's Local Secretary, D. R. DeLoach, at the post office, or apply at any first or second class post office in the above mentioned States and ask to see Examination Announcements No. 5-66.

30,000 FEDERAL JOBS OFFERED TO COMPETITION

The U. S. Civil Service Commission, Atlanta, Georgia, announces an extension of time through February 27 to file applications for clerical positions, paying entrance salaries ranging from $1.75 to $2.93 a year, with periodic increases every twelve months.

30,000 FEDERAL JOBS OFFERED TO COMPETITION

The U. S. Civil Service Commission, Atlanta, Georgia, announces an extension of time through February 27 to file applications for clerical positions, paying entrance salaries ranging from $1.75 to $2.93 a year, with periodic increases every twelve months.

There are more than 20,000 clerical jobs involved in various Federal government agencies in the States of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina and Tennessee.

This examination is for probationary Civil Service and after successful completion of the probationary period appointees will acquire a permanent Civil Service status.

The examination is open to the general public, and persons with a disability of arm, hand, leg or foot are acceptable if such disability does not prevent satisfactory performance of the duties.

Veterans that qualify in the examination will be given preference in appointment as provided in the Veterans' Preference Act of 1944.

For detailed information, form to file, etc., see the Commission's Local Secretary, D. R. DeLoach, at the post office, or apply at any first or second class post office in the above mentioned States and ask to see Examination Announcements No. 5-66.

30,000 FEDERAL JOBS OFFERED TO COMPETITION

The U. S. Civil Service Commission, Atlanta, Georgia, announces an extension of time through February 27 to file applications for clerical positions, paying entrance salaries ranging from $1.75 to $2.93 a year, with periodic increases every twelve months.

There are more than 20,000 clerical jobs involved in various Federal government agencies in the States of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina and Tennessee.

This examination is for probationary Civil Service and after successful completion of the probationary period appointees will acquire a permanent Civil Service status.

The examination is open to the general public, and persons with a disability of arm, hand, leg or foot are acceptable if such disability does not prevent satisfactory performance of the duties.

Veterans that qualify in the examination will be given preference in appointment as provided in the Veterans' Preference Act of 1944.

For detailed information, form to file, etc., see the Commission's Local Secretary, D. R. DeLoach, at the post office, or apply at any first or second class post office in the above mentioned States and ask to see Examination Announcements No. 5-66.

30,000 FEDERAL JOBS OFFERED TO COMPETITION

The U. S. Civil Service Commission, Atlanta, Georgia, announces an extension of time through February 27 to file applications for clerical positions, paying entrance salaries ranging from $1.75 to $2.93 a year, with periodic increases every twelve months.

There are more than 20,000 clerical jobs involved in various Federal government agencies in the States of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina and Tennessee.

This examination is for probationary Civil Service and after successful completion of the probationary period appointees will acquire a permanent Civil Service status.

The examination is open to the general public, and persons with a disability of arm, hand, leg or foot are acceptable if such disability does not prevent satisfactory performance of the duties.

Veterans that qualify in the examination will be given preference in appointment as provided in the Veterans' Preference Act of 1944.

For detailed information, form to file, etc., see the Commission's Local Secretary, D. R. DeLoach, at the post office, or apply at any first or second class post office in the above mentioned States and ask to see Examination Announcements No. 5-66.

30,000 FEDERAL JOBS OFFERED TO COMPETITION

The U. S. Civil Service Commission, Atlanta, Georgia, announces an extension of time through February 27 to file applications for clerical positions, paying entrance salaries ranging from $1.75 to $2.93 a year, with periodic increases every twelve months.

There are more than 20,000 clerical jobs involved in various Federal government agencies in the States of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina and Tennessee.

This examination is for probationary Civil Service and after successful completion of the probationary period appointees will acquire a permanent Civil Service status.

The examination is open to the general public, and persons with a disability of arm, hand, leg or foot are acceptable if such disability does not prevent satisfactory performance of the duties.

Veterans that qualify in the examination will be given preference in appointment as provided in the Veterans' Preference Act of 1944.

For detailed information, form to file, etc., see the Commission's Local Secretary, D. R. DeLoach, at the post office, or apply at any first or second class post office in the above mentioned States and ask to see Examination Announcements No. 5-66.

30,000 FEDERAL JOBS OFFERED TO COMPETITION

The U. S. Civil Service Commission, Atlanta, Georgia, announces an extension of time through February 27 to file applications for clerical positions, paying entrance salaries ranging from $1.75 to $2.93 a year, with periodic increases every twelve months.

30,000 FEDERAL JOBS OFFERED TO COMPETITION

The U. S. Civil Service Commission, Atlanta, Georgia, announces an extension of time through February 27 to file applications for clerical positions, paying entrance salaries ranging from $1.75 to $2.93 a year, with periodic increases every twelve months.

There are more than 20,000 clerical jobs involved in various Federal government agencies in the States of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina and Tennessee.

This examination is for probationary Civil Service and after successful completion of the probationary period appointees will acquire a permanent Civil Service status.

The examination is open to the general public, and persons with a disability of arm, hand, leg or foot are acceptable if such disability does not prevent satisfactory performance of the duties.

Veterans that qualify in the examination will be given preference in appointment as provided in the Veterans' Preference Act of 1944.

For detailed information, form to file, etc., see the Commission's Local Secretary, D. R. DeLoach, at the post office, or apply at any first or second class post office in the above mentioned States and ask to see Examination Announcements No. 5-66.

30,000 FEDERAL JOBS OFFERED TO COMPETITION

The U. S. Civil Service Commission, Atlanta, Georgia, announces an extension of time through February 27 to file applications for clerical positions, paying entrance salaries ranging from $1.75 to $2.93 a year, with periodic increases every twelve months.

There are more than 20,000 clerical jobs involved in various Federal government agencies in the States of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina and Tennessee.

This examination is for probationary Civil Service and after successful completion of the probationary period appointees will acquire a permanent Civil Service status.

The examination is open to the general public, and persons with a disability of arm, hand, leg or foot are acceptable if such disability does not prevent satisfactory performance of the duties.

Veterans that qualify in the examination will be given preference in appointment as provided in the Veterans' Preference Act of 1944.

For detailed information, form to file, etc., see the Commission's Local Secretary, D. R. DeLoach, at the post office, or apply at any first or second class post office in the above mentioned States and ask to see Examination Announcements No. 5-66.

30,000 FEDERAL JOBS OFFERED TO COMPETITION

The U. S. Civil Service Commission, Atlanta, Georgia, announces an extension of time through February 27 to file applications for clerical positions, paying entrance salaries ranging from $1.75 to $2.93 a year, with periodic increases every twelve months.

There are more than 20,000 clerical jobs involved in various Federal government agencies in the States of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina and Tennessee.

This examination is for probationary Civil Service and after successful completion of the probationary period appointees will acquire a permanent Civil Service status.

The examination is open to the general public, and persons with a disability of arm, hand, leg or foot are acceptable if such disability does not prevent satisfactory performance of the duties.

Veterans that qualify in the examination will be given preference in appointment as provided in the Veterans' Preference Act of 1944.